Dear Mr. Morell:

The Publications Review Board has completed a partial review of the rewrite of your book entitled The Great War of Our Time: An Insider's Account of the CIA's Fight Against al Qaeda. This is only a response to portions of your manuscript, and not a final response on the entirety of the text. The Board is trying to be as accommodating to you as possible by responding in parts, but that could mean that the final response could have further changes because the Board will be reviewing it in its entirety.

In accordance with the terms of your secrecy agreement, the Board has determined that the certain information in your manuscript is inappropriate for disclosure in the public domain (i.e., is considered to be classified information) and must be revised or deleted prior to publication.

We have outlined the concerns below; please know that our page numbers may be different from your page numbers, so we have provided entire sections so that you can locate the areas of concerns more readily.
